State Nights

at Buffalo State College

ELMS 1992

Meanings of life are significant to those who create them. To create is to have significance for the future. Creating for the future poses the attitudes for others' meanings of life.

HOMECOMING

“What A Parade”

This years Homecoming parade was the best parade seen in years. The student's Organizations spirits ran high as they marched down the local streets. The colorful waving banners and spectacular floats seem to dance in the sunlight as they moved along the parade course. Spectators lined in the local business windows, porches and side walks to watch the students showoff their stuff.

1992

"We Did It Again"

It was another intoxication Homecoming game. Once again the Buffalo State Bangals pulled ahead against the Brockport Eagles. Nice going let's keep it a tradition.

"Let It Rain"

As soon as the half time horn sounded the skies opened up to pouring rain. People scrambled for cover may it be an umbrella, a snack stand, a tent or just under the bleachers. The half time show included the Buffalo State Bengals and the cheerleaders giving it their best to entertain the spectators.

RUGBY

"MADDOGS"

A triumphant B.S.C. Rugby club made homecoming a blast for us all. Showing Niagara who was the best.

STUDENT

CAMPUS LIFE

THE EXPERIENCE

There are many different parts to campus life. Everyones college experiences are quite different. It all depends on what you make of it. Whether you get involved in one of the many activities that are offered or, if you just stick with your classes and studies. It all depends on you.

It seems that the students usually hang out in groups. You have your dormers that pop there heads out of there rooms to eat, go to classes or party and then spend most of their time in their rooms sleeping, studying and watching TV.

Then you have the commuters, they can usually be found in the Union's Fire side Lounge, the library or trying to find a parking space some where on campus. Lets not leave out the people who wait for the bus or walk to school on those cold blistery days or the teachers and the staff workers.

There is one place where all campus life comes together, and that's The Union at Bengal Pause. It's where every one unites and becomes one big line either waiting for food, books, the money machine, or looking for a place to sit.

WEEKENDS

THANK GOD FOR WEEKENDS

THANK GOD! The weekend is finally here. It's the only time of the week where you get to call the shots. When you live on campus for the most part students usually state their weekends on Thursday night since most students never even heard of Friday classes. Girls spend hours in front of the mirror trying to look their best. The evening starts at one of the many local bars drinking and dancing the night away.

Fridays are the day to work, study, study, go to that one last class and catch up with friends that you haven't had time to talk with, over the long and busy week. As the light slowly fades from the sky the partier once again comes out in us. There is nothing like spending time with good friends; around Buffalo the thing to do seems to be: bar hopping, going to movies, working, dancing, hanging out at the zoo, the art gallery and playing lazer tag, bowling, playing pool and going to sporting events.

Saturday is the day to sleep in and study. If you're looking for some one the chances are that you can find them in the library. Weekends there's nothing better.

BENGAL PAUSE

It's Tuesday . . .

Want to join an organization? Looking for a job? Did you ever see Mayor Griffin? No one has class during Bengal Pause; and that's when you can meet up with all of your friends. You can eat, study, attend meetings, or learn about events on campus.

Yes the lines are long to get your lunch, and finding a seat is utterly impossible, but that's the character of Bengal Pause. As you're filling out Master Card or Visa form to get a free waterbottle, or purchasing jewelry from an Ex-hippie, the noise and excitement surrounds you.

But eventually the roar dulls down and it's back to classes that is until Thursday when Bengal Pause strikes again!

REGISTRATION

THE NIGHTMARE RETURNS

You thought it was just an ordinary day, as you reach into your mail box only to pull out, "Your Registration Notice." AHHHHH!

Oh, no. It's that time already. It's one of the most dreaded times of the year next to finals and getting the phone bill. Registration week is pure hell. Not only do you have to pick up your course booklet, get advised for classes that for the most part are filled before you even step foot into registration and skip class because they scheduled you during the busiest part of your day.

Just before you have to stand in line to get in, you quickly fill out a hand full of scantron sheets, so that as soon as you get your registration slip stamped you can make a mad dash to drop it into the drop off slot.

The sight and sounds are reminiseints of Wall Street. People frantically crowd in front of the course opening board praying that the courede they need are still available. It's a race against everyone, who can get in a class before they are all filled. The more scantrons sheets you put in, the better your chances.

DORM LIFE

DORM SWEET DORM

As you lie fast asleep all snug in your bed only to be awakened by the loud ringing of the Fire Alarm out in the hall way. You slowly get yourself together, pulling your shoes on and grab your coat. Just before you walk out the door, you quickly glance at the clock. "It's TWO O'clock;" The thought "I am going to find and kill the jerk who pulled it," runs through your head.

The sleepless night caused by the people next door, or the pounding and laughing that comes from the floor above. Having ten tons of laundry that is thrown all about on your floor and not having any chance to do it.

Believe it or not there are some advantages. You meet many new friends and form a family away from home. Being able to get up for class with only 10 mins. to spare. Not having to spend hours looking for a parking spot every day. The late night runs to the candy machines or to The Bit. Along with the good you'll always have bad, like the never ending excuse to socialize with friends rather than doing homework. Eating cafeteria food for every meal and learning to share and trying to get along with everyone. Let's not forget the line in the morning to take a shower. Dorm life theres no other experience quite like it.

EXAMS

STRESS

Exams: There's no escaping them. Murphy's Law— 90% of the questions on the test will be on the chapter you didn't read.

Midterms, finals, essay, objectives — study, study, study . . . If you've finished one, you can bet you have one in another class too! Don't the professors plan it that way?!?! Surely the best part of exams is the craziness that follows. There's no better time to chill with friends at a local hang out, or call up a long distance friend. Besides, you'd better do it now before more exams arrive.

BUFFALO

DOWN TOWN

If we took a walk through Buffalo, what would we see . . .

We'd see colors, even when cloudy colors of buildings, clothes and people. But the brightest color is mood Buffalo is friendly.

We'd see stores, malls and bars. Malls like Boulevard and the Galleria. Stores like Everything Elmwood, and the shops on the strip. Bars — Mickey Rats, No Names and Toons.

Best of all we'd see places like the Albright-Knox Art gallery, Restaurants for everyone, and special places like the Delaware Park Rose garden.

No matter who you are, young or old, there's places in Buffalo to make everyone happy.

THE STRIP

At Buff state the weekends start early, and "The Strip" is the place to be. Some head for No Names and others Mickey Rates II. While Bullfeathers is a great place for a personal get together, Toons will pick up the beat.

And late night food — well there's no place on like Panos for the perfect atmosphere. If there's a time, there's a place on "the Strip" to fit the mood.

Fast food to Chinese, shopping to dancing — 'The Strip' has your entertainment.

DELAWARE PARK

If it's a relaxing break from the stress of everyday life, catch a play at Shakespeare in the Park.

If it's a more exhilarating side of the park you're looking for, join the joggers, walkers and people playing basketball or tennis.

Delaware Park is even suitable for more personal afternoon. How about a picnic, or stroll through the Rose garden.

And when you need a tranquil atmosphere to get some sun while studying, Delaware Park's the place for you.

Theta Sigma Tau

Theta Sigma Tau is a local sorority founded on November 7, 1989. We participate in many community activities. The women of Theta Sigma Tau carry out the meaning of sisterhood with a lot of caring, and sharing amongst each other. "A new beginning to a bright future."

ΣΔΤ

Sigma Delta Tau

Sigma Delta Tau brought us together in our bond of sisterhood. We are a national sorority that works hard for our philanthropy, the National Association for the Prevention of Child Abuse. We have alcohol and rape awareness programs, annually volunteer for the Haunted Catacombs, Haven House, and the campus Day Care Center.

Each woman in Sigma Delta Tau has her own personal goals, and with those goals and individual strengths we bring together a family that helps each other and the community. This year was the 75th Anniversary of Sigma Delta Tau, and with 90 chapters in the U.S. and one in Canada, we are happy and proud to say, we have thousands of sisters to call ours. That's what Sigma Delta Tau is, forever sisterhood.

Alpha Sigma Tau is the oldest national sorority on the Buffalo State College Campus. The sisters of Alpha Sigma Tau strive to be active, self-reliant and trustworthy. They are active both on and off campus, having shown this by participating in such events as the Zooper Pumpkin Patch. They also give time to Haven House, helping in the blood drives and collecting soup labels to aid mentally retarded children, as well as many other events. The women of the anchor work diligently to raise money by selling concessions at every home Buffalo Bills game. The sisters also have their share of fun at their bi-annual banquets. Alpha Sigma Tau is proud of the fact that "We are Family."

Kappa Alpha Psi

Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc. was founded on January 5, 1911 on the campus of Indiana University at Bloomington. The founders sought a formula that would immediately raise the sights of African-American Collegians and stimulate them to accomplishments higher than they might have imagined.

Fashioning achievement as its purpose, Kappa Alpha Psi began uniting college men of culture, patriotism and honor in a bond of Fraternity as chapters across the country and abroad. Under the theme "Training for Leadership," Kappa Alpha Psi promote a style of intellectual and aesthetic evaluation for than 100,000 college men. Rooted in concern for human development, The Kappa gestalt expects its members to stretch themselves in all directions, while holding fast to a sustaining principle of achievement.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded on November 1, 1901 in Richmond, Virginia. Sig Ep is both the largest national fraternity and the largest at Buffalo State College. The BSC Chapter, NY ETA, was the first to return after the State's Greek ban, chartering April 7, 1979. Sigma Phi Epsilon thrives on its motto, "Pride Through Excellence" in effort to maintain Virtue, Diligence, and Brotherly Love, it's three cardinal principles.

Sigma Tau Gamma

We are the Sig Tau's, Sig Tau's are we, happy go lucky bare . . . and free! On campus we could be seen flashing the blue and white from Rockwell Hall to the Bubble. Among our activities are tutoring the learning disabled, fronting peace rallies and sponsoring religious retreats. Off campus we are involved in many tasks including assisting the elderly across busy streets, nursing sick animals to health and holding the biggest bash of the year, the Eclair Squeezing Tournament Combo Al Bundy Bowling Competition. On a serious note, Sig Tau is a melting pot of characters that ranges from artist to athletes to businessmen etc. you name it we've got it. Our year is highlighted by house parties, intramurals and charitable events, with our success being mainly within each other.

A once small band of twelve, this Fraternity has risen to almost four times that size and is still growing. We have become one of the largest Fraternities on campus while still retaining our popularity.

Omicron Omega Nu

Omicron Omega Nu Sorority is Buffalo State College's first local sorority founded in March of 1988. The spirit of O-Nu is built upon the importance of individuality, strengthened through trust, and upheld through enthusiasm. Although young and independent, our history is seen through our success and contribution in both college and community events.

A vertical, high-contrast, black and white image. The left side features a dense, repeating pattern of small, dark, circular shapes (possibly dots or small circles) arranged in a grid-like fashion, set against a lighter background. The pattern is oriented vertically and appears to be a close-up or a stylized representation of a textured surface. The right side of the image is a solid, dark, textured area, possibly representing a different material or a continuation of the pattern in a different way. The overall composition is abstract and minimalist.

Joseph Hill

Joe works to promote scholastic excellence and cultural pride through his work in Native American Student Services and in the community. The Native American Heritage Celebration is just one example of his quality programming efforts. Joe is vice president of the Board of Directors of the Buffalo North American Indian Center and is an environmental activist working with the Buffalo James Bay Committee.

Sharon Stroman

There is a theme that runs through many of Sharon's activities. It is helping others in their educational endeavors. You can see this in Sharon's work with upward bound talent search, the Freshman Peer Mentor Program, and the Big Brother/Big Sister Program. Sharon is also a member of the African-American Student Association and a student ambassador. She describes her role as an R.A. as creating an environment that is safe, comfortable, and loving.

Leslie Wallace

Leslie is very busy partly because she is president of the Inter-Greek Association which oversees 22 very busy Greek organizations. She is also a member of the College Judicial Board, the Design Club, and Omicron Omega Nu. In her spare time, she volunteers at the Burchfield Art Center, the Nazareth Nursing Home, and Gateway Youth and Family Services.

COLOPHON

This yearbook is the 81st edition of the Elms, Buffalo State College's official yearbook, produced by and for the students and staff at Buffalo State College. Published and printed by Delmar Printing and Publishing Company located in Charlotte, North Carolina. Dave Gentile served as Delmar's Western New York representative. Senior portraits were taken by Knack and Richards Photography of Williamsville, New York. Commencement photographs were taken by Steve Mangione. This yearbook is one of 700 limited editions printed. The Elms yearbook is funded by the mandatory student activity fee and the United Students' Government of the State University of New York College at Buffalo.

There is a great number of people that need to be thanked because without their help, completing this book would have been virtually impossible. First I would like to thank Anthony Capece for all of his patience, time, and solutions to the many problems that I encountered. I am also very thankful to Kate Ward and Joyce Fink for providing the yearbook with many photographs and offering to help; it meant a great deal to me. Yolanda and Andrea I appreciate your help and I hope to see you in September. I am very grateful to all of you!
